

WHO WE ARE

The Career Advancement Network (CAN- formerly known as PEG or the Professional Employment Group) is a roundtable group affiliated with the BC HRMA. Our purpose is to provide a vehicle for members throughout BC to advance their careers, whether individuals are in job transition or simply wanting a forum to network and learn from others. In short, we are a proactive and supportive network of HR professionals taking responsibility for professional development and career growth.

BENEFITS OF BEING A CAREER ADVANCEMENT NETWORK MEMBER

- ▶ Support – discussions, advice, sounding board, learning
- ▶ Networking & forging new strategic alliances
- ▶ Sharing of job opportunities
- ▶ Job search related activities such as resume writing, self marketing & techniques in approaching the job market (i.e. recruiters, advertisement responding, internet)
- ▶ You may have your own profile posted on the BCHRMA web site for prospective employers to view
- ▶ Your BCHRMA dues can be paid monthly if you are in job transition

CRITERIA FOR BEING A CAREER ADVANCEMENT NETWORK MEMBER

- ▶ Must be a HRMA member or student member
- ▶ BC HR professional at any level, in transition, a specialist, generalist, or an HR consultant looking to advance your career or build your networks

SCHEDULED MEETINGS

We are currently looking for volunteers to chair and co-chair this roundtable. In the interim we will still be posting the CAN profile resume listing and emailing any job opportunities sent to the CAN group.

CONTACT INFORMATION - CAREER ADVANCEMENT NETWORK

For more information on the CAN Roundtable, volunteering with this group and posting your resume, please contact can@bchrma.org

View Current CAN Profiles

View CAN Profile Format Requirements

